

INMAN PARK FESTIVAL PARADE

Welcome to the Inman Park Festival Parade!

The Inman Park Parade will make its annual roll through the streets for Inman Park at 2:00 pm on Saturday, April 24, 2010. Now it is 39th year, the parade is Atlanta's quirkiest and most colorful parade led by the Inman Park butterfly, followed by marching bands, floats, art cars, politicians, drill teams, mascots, clowns jugglers, and many more, closed by the Inman Park Trash Queen riding aloft a city street sweeper. The parade takes place rain or shine.

The parade begins on Edgewood Avenue at Spruce Street, follows Edgewood to Hurt Street, Hurt Street to Euclid Avenue and Euclid Avenue to Austin Avenue where it disbands. The approximate length is 1 mile. There are 80 units in the parade and admission is free. Self built floats are judged by a neighborhood panel of artists and cash prizes are awarded for first, second and third place. If you are participating in the float competition, the name of your float must be clearly legible on the float or carried on a banner in front of the float. All parade units must report to the staging area between Krog and Spruce at 1:00 pm.

Parade Fees

A fee of $250 will be charged to for-profit businesses outside of the 30307 zip code and all politicians. The for-profit businesses who pay the $250 application fee will be included in the "Friends of Festival" sponsors in printed materials promoting the festival.
